CHOIR SINGERS

Thanks to all who participated in the choir for Palm Sunday and Easter. You contributed much to the services and the congregation has expressed their delight at having a choir in worship again. Therefore, we are going to continue this with choir rehearsals after worship on Sundays from 12:00-12:45. All are welcome. We will be singing some familiar anthems that are not too difficult so if you have an interest, please come to the Choir Room after worship. Any questions? Contact Louie Bailey.

COFFEE AND CONVERSATION IS TRAVELING TODAY!

The Young-ish Adult Coffee & Conversation is on the road this afternoon! Rather than meeting in the youth room following the service, we will be gathering at the home of Jordan and Patrick. Please reach out to Jordan or Patrick for further details if you plan on attending. We hope this time will jumpstart future gatherings of the Young-ish adults!

PRAYER IN CHRISTIAN HISTORY: AN ECUMENICAL APPROACH

Dr. Glen Hinson will offer this course (via Zoom), beginning Wednesday, May 4th at 10:30 AM.

This course will entail a study of the major prayer traditions—beginning with the Psalms, Jesus, and Paul—with major emphasis on four questions: (1) What is prayer? (2) How do you pray? (3) How does God fit into the picture? (4) What prayer does both to the person who prays and to what God is trying to achieve in our world? This study will complement the class on “Mystics of the Church.” Please email Jordan@chbcky.org to be added to the class email list.

BOOK SIGNING: DR. SUSAN HOWELL

On May 15th following worship, Dr. Susan Howell will be signing a new book she recently wrote entitled Buried Talents: Overcoming Gendered Socialization to Answer God's Call. Further details will be coming soon, but please mark your calendars. Dr. Howell teaches at Campbellsville University and she and her husband Dwayne regularly attend events, classes, and worship at CHBC. What follows is a brief description of the book.

"If God is calling women to lead, what's holding them back?" Susan Harris Howell has spent years helping students investigate this question. In Buried Talents, she makes clear how gender disparity in leadership is directly connected to a larger, less overt issue: gendered socialization. Howell examines gendered messages people encounter inside and outside the church in each stage of life, showing how they often create misconceptions about who women are, what they're capable of, and how they fit into God's work."

AMERICAN SIGN LANGUAGE

We are pleased to be able to share that we are now offering American Sign Language Interpretation for worshippers in the sanctuary and through our livestream on Sunday mornings. Please spread the word to those for whom this option would be helpful. Disclaimer: The interpretation provided for this presentation is live. Interpreter(s) assigned may or may not have had materials in advance for preparation. Inaccuracies related to the content of the material may be due to imperfections of the interpreting process.
